Jamboree Grocery Store

Basecamp & Subcamp Headquarters: Overall Site Plan

Today's Overview

- The planning process for shopping
- The point system
- The shopping & checkout process
- The leftover returns process

The planning process for shopping

- The product list
- The Jamboree Cookbook (menu ideas & instructions)
- The flexibility to change your mind daily
- The only limit is a Unit's imagination and points and stock
- Special diet support - Kosher, Halal, Gluten-sensitive, Vegan, Vegetarian, Nuts, and Dairy
 - Halal – 2000
 - Gluten-Sensitive – 700
 - Nut Allergies – 300
 - Kosher – 200
- The ratio of participants to staff would be 80/20

Spices Question

The point system

- Items will be assigned a point value
- There may be a “Sale” on slower items
- Ice is free from Subcamp HQ -
Some foods should be iced until you are ready to cook...not drinks
☺

Points Question

The shopping process

- Units will be issued passes to their assigned grocery store.
- Scouts use SwiftShopper phone app to “check-in”
- Scouts enter the store with their wagon.
- Scouts shop with phone scanner.

Mobile Phone Question

The checkout process

- When scouts checkout, the SwiftShopper app will send the unit leader (or designee) an email with the shopping details (time, items, points used, balance left).

The leftovers/returns process

Each grocery store will have a Food Returns tent.

Unopened items that are non-perishable may be returned.

Qualifying returned items will be set up as ‘shop for free’.

Many items will be donated to the Mountaineer Food Bank.

Other Things Rick was told to mention:

- Troop cooking
- Propane gas stoves, no wood, no charcoal
- Print cookbook before you leave
- Let the scouts own this
- We have videos/slideshows for:
 - Using SwiftShopper
 - Cleaning a burnt skillet
 - Dishwashing with the 3-pot method
 - Using “hotel” pans...Want to watch?
 - Others needed?
