- Travel Documents and Tips
  - Citizens of 38 countries covered by the US Visa Waiver Program (VWP)
    - Typically do not need a visa to enter the USA as a tourist,
<https://www.cbp.gov/travel/international-visitors/visa-waiver-program>
    - VWP travelers entering USA by air or sea must have an Electronic System for Travel Authorization (ESTA) approval, <https://esta.cbp.dhs.gov/esta/>
  - Citizens from non-VWP countries will require a US Non-Immigrant Class B-2 Tourist Visa
    - Applications administered by the US Department of State
    - Completed in your home country or country of residence at a US Embassy or Consulate
    - Application process may be lengthy; start 6 to 12 months in advance to ensure receipt of visa prior to travelling, <https://www.usembassy.gov/>
  - Expect an interview at port of entry by an officer of Customs and Border Protection (CBP), <https://www.cbp.gov/border-security/ports-entry/overview>
    - CBP is seeking assurances that tourists entering the USA are arriving for lawful purposes and will leave the USA within the stated time period

- Be Prepared for
  - US government initiatives to counter human trafficking and international child abduction
  - Answering questions from CBP agents about the youth members traveling with the contingent
- Citizens of Canada (not Permanent Residents)
  - Typically do not require Visas to enter the USA as tourists
  - Citizens of Canada do not require an ESTA to travel to the USA by air, but must present a valid Canadian Passport; <https://travel.state.gov/content/travel/en/us-visas/tourism-visit/citizens-of-canada-and-bermuda.html>
