

FACTS AND FIGURES TO SHARE WITH YOUR CONTINGENT...

Jamboree Flash Update

Lost & Found

Participants should be careful with their belongings at the Jamboree. Remember that the excitement of the Jamboree will distract you from your regular routine, so make a habit of checking your daypack and pockets for your key belongings, whenever you move from one location to another. You do not want to leave items behind at a camp, Action Center, Jamboree Trading Shops, arena, display area, or anywhere else.

Participants should label all their gear, clothing, and expensive personal items such as phones, cameras, and other digital devices with their name and Jamboree unit number. This makes it easier for items to be returned to their owners. Take particular care with items like eyeglasses, which may be difficult or impossible to mark with your name and unit. If possible, take a picture of your Jamboree hard credential with your phone, tablet, and/or camera and set it as your "lock" screen. This may help us return your device if we are able to see this photo when turning on the device.

Each day, all lost items will be delivered from across the WSJ site to the main Lost and Found Center located near the Jamboree HQ. If we can identify the owner, we will return the item to your local Subcamp. Items that cannot be identified will be tracked and stored at the Jamboree HQ. Participants looking for lost items may come to this Center to look for their item. Due to high traffic, there will also be a short-term Lost and Found near World Point, Scott Summit Center.

The Lost and Found centers will be open 09:00-18:00 every day of the Jamboree.

Expensive items like electronics will require verification and a signature for release.

After the Jamboree, all Lost and Found items (clothing, hats, etc.) will be donated to a local West Virginia charity. Expensive items like electronics will be sent to the BSA National HQ in Irving, Texas on August 4, 2019, where an attempt will be made to locate the owner and/or respond to requests about lost items. After November 15, 2019, all remaining items will be donated to a local charity.

Please note that WSJ 2019 is not responsible for lost items that are not recovered. Lost and found items will be shipped at owners expense.